

TSC 2010~Speaker Quotes

"The Toronto Screenwriting Conference is a wonderful opportunity for writers of all shapes and sizes to interact with top drawer TV and film writers from every genre. Toronto deserves a first-rate conference like this -- I'm thrilled that it now exists."

- Chuck Tatham, *How I Met Your Mother

"The Toronto Screenwriting Conference 2010 was spellbinding. The roster was packed with writers right across the spectrum. Virtuoso instructors like Sheldon Bull, Ellen Sandler, Pam Douglas, Linda Seger and Ellen Bessen wowed their audiences with their knowledge and experience. If you're serious about taking your writing to the next level, this conference will deliver."

- Jennifer van Sijll, author, *Cinematic Storytelling

"Working professionals sharing and exchanging the brass tacks of selling and producing content is an invaluable resource for any writer. The Toronto Screenwriting Conference refreshingly reveals not what a writing career is 'like,' but what it 'is'."

- Rob Zotnowski, *Stars Road Entertainment

"I loved teaching for the Toronto Conference. So well organized, and so classy! And participants were so responsive!"

- Dr. Linda Seger, author, *Making a Good Script Great

"The Toronto Screenwriting Conference presents a unique and excellent opportunity for professional writers who want to work in television."

- Pam Douglas, author, *Writing the TV Drama Series
