

TELEFILM CANADA Golden Quill

The TELEFILM CANADA Golden Quill is awarded to twelve emerging screenwriters across Canada. The award provides complimentary registration to the Toronto Screenwriting Conference 2012. Six of the twelve registrations will be awarded to diverse screenwriters.

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Canadian citizen or Landed Immigrant
- Must have written 2 short films of which 1 has been produced
- Must have written 1 feature length screenplay or TV series treatment/ pilot
- Must NOT have a produced feature or TV series/ pilot

Emerging screenwriters should complete the application below and be sure to explain how the Golden Quill will assist in their professional development.

Please email your completed application by MONDAY FEBRUARY 6, 2012 to:
goldenquill@torontoscreenwritingconference.com

(Be sure to save this form with your Surname. For example: John Smith. Please save document as TCGQSmith.doc)

Name: _____

Address: _____ Apt #: _____

City: _____ Province: _____ Postal Code: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Applicant of Diverse Background: Yes No

Titles of short films: _____

Title of produced short film & where it has screened: _____

Title of feature screenplay/ TV series/pilot: _____

Synopsis of feature screenplay/ TV series:

Stage of Project: Outline Treatment 1st Draft Pilot

Bio (max. 300 words):

How will attending the TSC assist in your professional development?
